Summer Issue: Second Quarter 2018

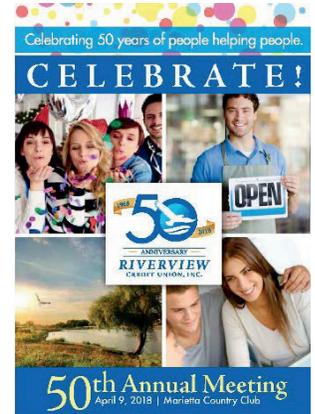

2018 ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Our 50th Annual Membership Meeting was held on Monday, April 9th at the Marietta Country Club. The theme for the evening was "Celebrate!". The meeting was well attended and, during the formal business meeting, current Board members Mark Miner and W. Layne Marks were re-elected to serve as directors for three-year terms.

Following the formal meeting, Mike Iaderosa, President and CEO, reviewed Riverview's 2017 results of operations and the key accomplishments during the year. He also provided a summary of our strategic initiatives for 2018.

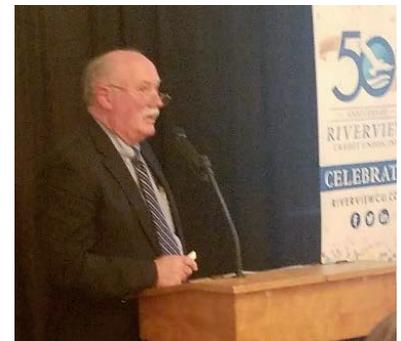

Riverview's 50th Anniversary also was recognized during the meeting by federal and state government officials. Proclamations from Marietta Mayor Joe Matthews (pictured left with Mike Iaderosa), Belpre Mayor Mike Lorentz, and U.S. Congressman Bill Johnson (R-OH) were presented during the meeting.

During the dinner hour, Ken Schilling (pictured below) shared his experience working with cooperatives, like Riverview. Ken retired as CEO from Washington Electric Cooperative after working for the company for over 20 years. He explained that cooperatives around the world operate according to the same set of core principles and values, adopted by the International Co-operative Alliance.

Those core principals are:

1. Voluntary and Open Membership.
2. Democratic Control.
3. Member Economic Participation.
4. Autonomy and Independence.
5. Financial education, training, and information.
6. Cooperation among cooperatives.
7. Concern for the community.

Riverview has been guided by these seven principals from the start. We recognize that our success is driven largely by the success of our member-owners. We are confident Riverview will be here for another 50 years to come!

Third Annual Adopt-A-Thon Success!

On Friday, May 25th, we held our third "Adopt-A-Thon" at the Belpre Office in partnership with the Humane Society of the Ohio Valley. We had several visitors stop by to meet the adorable animals up for adoption.

During the month of May, we collected donations for the Humane Society.

We want to thank our members and the community for their donations, as well as the volunteers of the Humane Society. Without those volunteers, these animals wouldn't have a voice! The Humane society is always in need of supplies. Please visit their website for a current list of supplies needed: hsov.org.
